CROSSCURRENTS OF CRITICISM: Horn Book Essays 1968-1977

Edited by Paul Heins

Paul Heins, former editor of The Horn Book Magazine, has selected essays which expand and elucidate the classification, defense, and evaluation of children's literature. Far more than a collection of articles, the book represents a mature formulation of critical thought. The value and purpose of the criticism of children's and young adult books is the underlying theme of this book which challenges old criteria and inspires new modes of appraisal.

Crosscurrents of Criticism will undoubtedly raise the position of children's literature in the opinion of those who think it inferior to adult literature and become a very important book for all who study children's literature.
